Saturday, August 18. 1705.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated August 13.

Rome, July 25.

ON Monday last a Consistory was held, in which the Pope gave the Pallium to Signior Fieschi and Signior Gontieri, both new Archbishops; the first of Genoa, the other of Avignon. The latter desir'd to be excus'd from accepting his Archbishoprick, because he had not wherewithal to pay for his Bulls, his Estate in Piemont having been ruin'd by the present War; But the Pope having held a Congregation of all the Cardinals that are Heads of religious Orders, it was therein resolv'd that Signior Gontieri should pay but half the Price of his Bulls. His Holiness made a Speech to the same Congregation about the Differences that are fallen out between this Court and that of Vienna, and the Imperial Ambassador's withdrawing himself from hence, and ask'd their Advice: But what Counsel they gave him is not yet known. When the Pope was first inform'd of the said Imperial Ambassador (the Count de Lanberg's) Departure from hence the 16th Instant, he sent for Cardinal Pauluci his chief Minister and Secretary of State, and told him what a troublesome Affair he had drawn upon himself by following his and Cardinal Fourbin's Counsels, and that he expected they would cast about in what Manner he might best clear his Hands of it; whereupon that Minister immediately went to Cardinal Fourbin, and had a long Conference with him in private. A Proclamation has been publish'd, prohibiting all Commerce with Sardinia, upon Advice that some Vessels have touch'd there in their Voyage from Tunis, where the Plague rages very violently and sweeps away great Numbers of People. A Congregation of State has been held, to consider of what has pass'd in Holland with regard to some Jesuits who were expell'd that Province for concerning themselves in the Affair of the Archbishop of Sebaste. This Court appears to be very uneasy about this Matter; which contributed not a little to the Resolution lately pass'd to condemn the Opinions of the Janfenists, whose sworn Enemies the Jesuits are: The Cardinal Janfon has thank'd the Pope, in the Name of the King of France his Master for condemning the Janfenists 'Tis reported the Queen Dowager of Poland has desir'd the Pope to give order for the Bishop of Poshania to be releas'd from his Imprisonment in the Castle of St. Angelo and to be under no other Confinement than to keep within the Walls of this City.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Aug. 14.

Francfort, Aug. 9. 'Tis advis'd from Ausburg, that the Count de Truchses is expected there, to receive in the Emporor's Name an Oath of Allegiance from the Magistrates of that City, as he has already from those of Memmingen and other Places. They write from Munich, that a considerable Sum of Money has been discover'd there, which was hidden by the Bavarian Malecontents. The great Master of the Teutonic Order, set out from hence Yesterday, to go to Mentz, and thence to Dusseldorp to make a Visit to his Brother the Elector Palatine.

Plymouth, August 14. This Day came in from cruising to the Westward Her Majesty's Ships the Worcester, Rochester, and Dunkirk, As also the Six Islands Pacquet Boat Captain Vring from Falmouth.

Lymouth, August 15. Yesterday and to Day came into these Roads about 30 Sail of laden Colliers; the Masters of which report that they came from Timmouth-Bar on Friday last about 100 Sail in all, with 2 Men of War, viz. the Dolphin and Sheerness for their Convoy; but that Night were separated by a Storm of Wind; 8 or 9 of this Fleet they saw driven ashore by the Storm about Sonterpoint. This Day sail'd from hence about 20 Sail of light Colliers and Coasters, with the Boneta-sloop for their Convoy. Several laden Ships are here, as is also the Chatham Prize. There is come into this Harbour the Friendship of and for Pool laden with Coals from Newcastle; she was driven from her Anchors out of the Downs on Saturday last.

Harwich, August 16. This Morning 40 Sail of light Colliers sail'd from hence to the Northward without Convoy. The Pacquet Boat is not sail'd with the Mail for Holland; neither are the Mails arriv'd from Holland, but the Wind being fair for them at S. S. E. we are in expectation of them.

London, August 18.

Letters from Lisbon of the 13th of August N. S. which arriv'd last Night, advise, That they had an Account there the Earl of Peterborough had joyn'd Sir Cloudfly Shovel off Cape Spartel, and that they stood into the Straights, but had receiv'd no News of them since: That the King of Portugal is in a fair Way to a perfect Recovery from his Indisposition: That the Earl of Galloway is preparing to take the Field against the Enemy: And that Colonel Hefley is dead.
